

PETRO LIVING HINGE™

The strongest, most reliable one-piece Acrylic Hinge available!

Petro's Living Hinge is a continuous, coextruded thermoplastic hinge combining Impact-Modified acrylic wings for toughness with a polyester thermoplastic hinge membrane for full flexibility and long life.

Designed for ease of assembly to other acrylic components by mechanical fastening or gluing, our hinge has been tested for over a million flexes without failure or fatigue. Available from stock in either flat or channel profile.
